

LOCAL NEWS.

A SHOOTING AFFAIR ON THE CANAL.—The Cumberland News of yesterday says:—"On Saturday evening last, as Captain Cyrus Fisher's boat was ascending the canal and in the vicinity of Seneca, about thirty miles above Georgetown, his boat came up with a stone boat, in charge of a man named Irvin Arrington. Fisher's boat passed Arrington's, which increased the latter and a quarrel ensued between the two men. Fisher was upon the tow path with his mules, and Arrington within the cabin of his own boat, when, as Fisher was in the act of leaving the vicinity of the stone boat Arrington placed the muzzle of a loaded musket, charged with large sized shot, out the cabin window and fired at Fisher, a number of the shot taking effect in Fisher's right leg and foot, which completely disabled him, and he was carried aboard of his boat and subsequently brought on to this city. His wounds, although painful, are not serious, and in a few weeks hence it is expected he will be about again. Arrington is the man that was engaged in a shooting scrape in this city some time since, and seems to have a partiality for that business. In all probability he may use fire arms once to offend, if he has not already done so, and have the law enforced against him. At last accounts Arrington had not been arrested." Arrington is a native of this city, and usually lives here, but for some time past has been running a canal boat from Seneca to Georgetown.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

CINCINNATI CONVENTION.

CINCINNATI, O., May 2.—At ten o'clock this morning the halls and galleries were well filled. A feeling of uneasiness was expressed by many in anticipation of an acrimonious discussion to-day. The anti Greeley members of the New York delegation will offer a protest against the action of the majority in voting to cast the vote of the entire delegation for Greeley. An effort is anticipated in the Convention to overrule that action and assert the right of each delegate to express his individual preference.

Susan B. Anthony and Laura DeForce Gordon entered and took seats amid cheers and hisses.

The Convention was called to order at 10.20 by the temporary chairman, who announced the delegates present from Wyoming, Montana and Dakota territories. He also urged quiet and order as indispensable to hearing in so large a hall, and requested everybody to keep seated unless they rose to speak, and in the latter case announce the name and State of speaker.

A Missouri delegate urged the appointment of a committee of one from each State on permanent organization.

Fitz Henry Warren moved an amendment by including territories, which, after some debate, was accepted, and the motion was amended adopted.

Mr. Cochrane moved the appointment of a committee of nine to draft rules and regulations for the government of the Convention, and in the meantime the rules of the House of Representatives be adopted.

Mr. Tousey, of New York, moved that all propositions relating to principle of platform be referred, without debate, to the committee on resolutions when appointed.

Mr. McClure, of Pennsylvania, moved a committee of one from each State and territory on resolutions.

Mr. Atkinson, of Massachusetts, moved to amend by making a committee of two from each State only, thus excluding territories.

Mr. Grosvenor, Missouri, urged the appointment of a committee on resolutions.

The chair concurred in this view, and said it was the first duty to constitute a Convention by ascertaining regularly who its members were.

Mr. McClure withdrew his motion at the request of Mr. Cochrane, who moved a committee on credentials of one from each State and territory, which was adopted.

The roll was then called and several committees named.

Carl Schurz has been elected permanent President of the Convention.

LETTER FROM CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE.
NEW YORK, May 2.—The following letter from Chief Justice Chase is published to-day:—"WASHINGTON, April 29.

MY DEAR SIR:—My name, if you may judge from the newspapers, will not be much considered at Cincinnati, and I am quite content, and none the less grateful to friends who think it should be so. As you know, I have not sought or desired the nomination. If it were judged the best means of uniting the greatest number of those opposed to the administration on principle, it would doubtless be my duty to accept it. If any other name be preferred I shall be entirely satisfied. What is essential with me is that what has been gained—"Freedom"—be secured beyond peradventure; that the currency be placed on a sound basis; that real reform be accomplished in taxation—internal and external, and in perfect reconciliation of sections and citizens. Your Parkersburg platform, as I remember it, embodies these views substantially, and I hope none contrary to it will be adopted.

Yours truly, S. P. CHASE.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, May 2, 1872. CONGRESS.

In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Sumner made a number of ineffectual efforts to obtain the consideration of his mixed schools bill.

A resolution was agreed to fixing 11 o'clock as the hour of meeting of the Senate on and after Monday next.

The Naval Appropriation bill was then taken up.

The House of Representatives was engaged on Indian business until 12.50, when the Tariff bill was taken up.

Mr. Maynard addressed the House.

MISCELLANEOUS.
The Lee Public School, (Miss Clarkson) of Alexandria, is at the Capitol to-day on a May excursion.

The following is the resolution introduced by Mr. Spencer:

A Bill in relation to the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad.

Be enacted, &c., That it shall be lawful for the Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad Company, a corporation chartered under the laws of the State of Virginia, to exercise its functions as a common carrier, and transport passengers and freight within the District of Columbia, and for this purpose shall have authority to run trains over the bridge which has been constructed by the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company across the Potomac River at the foot of Maryland avenue, in the city of Washington, to the opposite bank of said river on the Virginia shore, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the act of Congress giving to said Baltimore and Potomac Railroad Company the privilege to construct and operate said bridge, and to put down said bridge across said river, and to intersect with Virginia avenue, and thence along said avenue or in the center of C. D. or E. streets south, by a tunnel under the public grounds east of the Capitol building, and at a sufficient distance therefrom, to be approved by the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds, to Delaware avenue, and along said avenue to the line of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Sec. 2. That the said Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad Company shall have authority to extend a lateral branch from Maryland avenue along Thirteenth street until the public reservation between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets is reached, and from thence said track shall be extended by a tunnel or covered road to the line of the Washington Canal, near or at its intersection with Fourteenth street, and across said street, by suitable bridge, and along said street to its intersection with B street north, and shall have authority to build and maintain a depot and station at or near its terminus on Fourteenth street, as above described. It shall be competent for said Orange, Alexandria and Manassas Railroad Company to make a connecting track from a point on said lateral branch in Thirteenth street, along B street south to its intersection with Virginia avenue and its main line: Provided, That said tracks shall conform to the prescribed grade of the streets, and that any damage caused to the property of individuals by the construction of said road, shall be paid for by said railroad company.

From Mexico.

NEW YORK, May 2.—A special dispatch dated the revolutionary camp, five miles from Matamoros, April 30th, says:—"A Courier arrived from the interior to-day with dispatches which say that Diaz has reappeared and occupies Guadaluajara with a large force. The state of Guanajuato is in complete insurrection and anarchy. Rocha has evacuated Durango and is marching to Jalisco. Donato Guerra is following him. Borrego has reoccupied Durango. Poor animals compel slow movements of his army. Siege guns will be mounted on wagons to-night, and it is expected that fire will be opened on Matamoros to-morrow. There are no signs of movements on Bagdad, although most of the cavalry are absent. Trevino received notice of the black flag having been raised at Matamoros yesterday. He laughed, and said, 'the flag of cowards.'"

From New York.

NEW YORK, April 2.—A report relative to the Methodist Book Concern made by Mr. Gunn, who was appointed as an expert by Dr. Carlton, was made on Monday to the Book Committee, but voted down. It will be presented to the General Conference. It affirms that the original records of the details of the business of the Concern are incorrect, that the cash account is not properly kept, and that the vouchers are loosely preserved and difficult to find, the result being that monies received and expended are mainly conjectured, the figures being changed, and the true condition of the Book Concern cannot be stated in the absence of the book keeper. The records of books have not been preserved for several years.
